Mrs. Oswald Dismisses Mark Lane

Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of the late Lee Harvey Oswald, accused killer of President Kennedy, said yesterday she had dismissed Mark Lane as her attorney.

Mr. Lane was hired by Mrs. Oswald to seek the clearing of her son's name before the Warren Commission.

Mrs. Oswald also said she had asked Mr. Lane to send her a copy of his report to the commission and to stop any "organized campaign" on behalf of her son through his "Citizens' Committee of Inquiry." She said she had received no contributions following a March 21 Chicago appeal for funds for an office, investigator and stenographer, and believed this was because people thought she was affiliated with that committee.

Mr. Lane agreed Jan. 11 to represent Mrs. Oswald without charge. Tuesday Mrs. Oswald wrote him, "I consider your work finished and hereby terminate your representation." Mr. Lane agreed to the termination and promised a copy of his report, but said nothing about disbanding the Citizens' Committee.
